

THE WALCOTE
PRACTICE
WINCHESTER'S PRIVATE GP

Anti-Bribery Statement

WHL takes a zero-tolerance approach to bribery and corruption. All staff members are trained in these matters.

It is illegal and in breach of the Bribery Act 2010 for any parties, including service users, to offer gifts or other inducements to Walcote Health Ltd in order to receive any perceived form of enhanced service from the organisation.

It is similarly illegal and in breach of the Bribery Act 2010 for Walcote Health Ltd to receive such gifts or inducements from any party, or to make gifts or inducements in order to secure new business or a better service etc from any party.

If you have any suspicion that Walcote Health Ltd may have been subject to or involved in any form of bribery, please report this immediately so that we may address the issue:

- to a staff member
- by using our Complaints, Suggestions & Compliments Form
- to the Police if more appropriate

Thank You